Equality Policy

The Equality Act 2010 replaced all existing equality legislation such as the Race Relations Act, Disability Discrimination Act and Sex Discrimination Act. It has consolidated this legislation to provide a single source of discrimination law.

Rationale:

At Lydiard Park Academy there is a commitment to providing equal opportunities to everyone within the School's learning community, including staff, pupils, parents and visitors to the School. At Lydiard Park Academy we value respect and will not tolerate racism, sexism, homophobia relating to gender or sexual orientation, prejudicial attitudes towards culture, religion, special educational need/disability, bullying or any other oppressive behaviour.

Discrimination in any form is actively discouraged and pupils are encouraged to show respect for others. We recognise the important role which the Academy plays in helping to form attitudes and values in young people and will actively promote anti discriminatory behaviour and work to prevent anti-social behaviours.

As such, Lydiard Park Academy will ensure a learning and teaching environment which is free of discrimination. Education is about maximising opportunities for personal growth and fulfilment. Opportunities will be available to all, regardless of ability, age, gender, ethnic or social background. These opportunities are secured through positive action by the Academy and community.

At Lydiard Park Academy we celebrate diversity of culture, race and talents and try to ensure that everyone is given opportunities to value their own contribution to the Academy and to have this noticed and valued by others. The Academy's mission is to ensure that pupils, regardless of background, will be part of our community. We seek to give all pupils equality of opportunity, irrespective of gender, ability (both physical and mental), sexuality, race or religion. We seek to close the gap between the achievements of different groups of young people so that all have equal opportunities in their adult life and empower them in all areas of life to contribute purposefully to society. This is fully reflected in our Academy's vision and values, which seeks to promote good relationships between everyone in the Academy community, building an atmosphere of mutual trust and confidence.

Aims:

At Lydiard Park Academy we are committed to the following aspects of equality:

- To ensure high quality education for all pupils
- The Academy has high expectations of all pupils

- To promote the principals of equality, respect, fairness and justice for all
- To develop universal values and citizenship by celebrating cultural diversity and supporting pupils in developing a positive self-image

- Ensure that all members of the Academy's community are aware of and implement the policy
- Ensure that the policy is implemented with regard to staff selection and appointments
- Take seriously reports of discrimination from parents/carers, pupils or staff by investigating them and ensuring that appropriate action is taken and
- Ensure that information with regard to ethnic origin is collected and entered into the School Information System and that this information is used as part of the monitoring of equality of opportunity in line with the Data Protection Act

Specifically this includes ensuring:

- cover for absent colleagues is fairly distributed
- requests for leave of absence are consistently met
- duties are fairly allocated
- non-contact time is distributed as per the recommended formula

- Undertaking initiatives to improve provision for all pupils
- To create an environment which affirms and supports ethnic, cultural, religious and social diversity and effectively promotes good personal, community and race relations

The role of the Head of Department:

When designing schemes of work, this policy will act as a guide both in their choice of topics for study and in how to approach sensitive issues:

1. To ensure opportunities are provided in curriculum content to promote pupils' understanding of different environments and societies other than their own
2. When devising curriculum policies and selecting resources all staff will ensure that teaching material is non-discriminatory
3. To provide balance in themes or topics and planned learning experiences, taking into account the interest of both boys and girls

4. To implement strategies to raise levels of achievement, aspirations and self-esteem in all pupils

The Role of the Teacher:

The teacher has a crucial role in providing for equal opportunities and enabling pupils to develop universal values and encompass the principles of equality, respect, fairness and justice.

1. The class teacher will ensure that all pupils are treated fairly, equally and with respect
2. They do not discriminate against any child
3. When selecting classroom material, teachers pay due regard to the sensitivities of all members of the class and do not provide material that is racist or sexist in nature. Teachers will strive to provide material which gives positive images of ethnic minorities and that challenges stereotypical images of minority groups
4. Will choose learning styles and teaching strategies that avoid gender bias and stereotyping and that also reflect the diverse and multi-racial nature of our society
5. Will use teaching styles, methods, language, questioning and classroom management that includes and engages all pupils

Whole School Application:

a. Admissions

The Academy does not permit gender, race, colour, religion, sexuality or disability to be used as criteria for admission.

b. Registration

- Academy lists are organised chronologically or alphabetically, not by group (unless this is required by an outside agency for a particular purpose).
- Pupils' names will be accurately recorded and correctly pronounced. Pupils should be encouraged to accept and respect names from other cultures.

c. Discrimination

All forms of discrimination within the Academy should be treated seriously. Incidents will be logged whenever they take place in the Academy. It will be explained to the offender why the behaviour is unacceptable.

d. Curriculum

All pupils have access to the Academy's curriculum. Staff are aware how their own expectations affect the achievements, behaviour and status of each pupil. The curriculum is to be balanced, objective and meet the needs of all pupils.

e. Resources

The Academy's aim is to provide for all pupils according to their needs, irrespective of gender, ability or ethnic origins. In selecting resources, staff should aim to present positive images that are non-racist and non-sexist. Pupils should be presented with accurate information about similarities and differences between cultural and religious groups.

f. School and Classroom Organisation

1. Equal opportunities will be considered when grouping pupils for activities. This may involve special specific groupings to ensure that every child participates fully.
2. Each child will be given opportunities to exercise responsibility within the classroom or the Academy, with care taken regarding stereotyping of roles. We see boys and girls equally in the opportunities we provide for achievement and leadership.

g. Resources

1. Departmental books and resources are checked before use to ensure that they do not give a stereotypical or over-simplified view in terms of gender, race, religion, sexuality, culture or disability
2. When choosing new materials, we seek balance in the representation of the sexes and minority groups, looking for positive role models in stories and settings.
3. Language used in resources is monitored for bias so that we do not promote negative or derogatory images.
4. Display materials and illustrations reflect the diversity of our society where appropriate and show both men and women in positive situations and roles.

h. Strategies for creating an equal opportunities environment:

1. Positive reinforcement of good behaviour, rather than giving a high profile to pupils who are misbehaving, including use of praise, certificates and rewards.
2. Clear and concise Academy rules, phrased in terms that the pupil can understand. All pupils need to understand that name-calling, bullying or biased attitudes and behaviour are unacceptable in our Academy.
3. Changing groupings for specific tasks, so that pupils have opportunities to join in co-operative activities with different people.
4. Creativity and role-play, including acting out feelings or conflicts, in order that pupils can see why their behaviour is unacceptable and be encouraged to change their attitudes.
5. Visits from people who have non-stereotypical jobs.
6. Visits from people from different races and cultures.
7. Visits from disabled people.
8. Taking part in multi-cultural activities and events.
9. Contact with disabled pupils.
10. Recognition and praise for all forms of achievement from all pupils.

The aim of this policy is to ensure that no job applicant or employee receive less than favourable treatment on grounds of disability, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief, sex or sex orientation, or is disadvantaged by any conditions or requirements which cannot be shown to be justifiable. Selection and promotion criteria will be kept under continuing review to ensure that individuals are selected and promoted on the basis of their relative merits and abilities, having agreed to the need of the specific job.

Where possible, training will be given to enable employees to have an opportunity of promotion and progression according to their ability and potential.

j. All staff:

1. All our staff will challenge incidents of prejudice or racism.
